

About International Faculty Week

Tecnológico de Monterrey is the top private university in Mexico, as well as one of the leading institutions in Latin America. Its International Faculty Week 2026 will bring together faculty members from our partner universities, giving them the opportunity to share their expertise and teach in a multicultural environment.

Participants will have the opportunity to expand their network with colleagues from all around the world.

Dates & Location

From November 9th to 13th, 2026 (in-person) in the international campuses of Tec de Monterrey.

When applying, applicants must choose at least two campus options when applying.

Please keep in mind that you will only participate in one campus throughout the whole week.

Application Process

To apply for the International Faculty Week 2026 you need to fill out our online application before Friday, July 31st 2026. An updated CV (in English or Spanish), as well as proposed topics on lectures are needed to submit the application.

Selection Process

Participants are chosen directly by the Academic Departments at Tecnológico de Monterrey. Once selected, a professor from Tec de Monterrey will be your host throughout the academic program.

Every participant will be notified no later than Friday August 28th, 2026 if they have been accepted. Participants can begin academic preparation and travel arrangements only after acceptance.

Every chosen participant will arrange the academic topics directly with their Tec de Monterrey host professor.

An academic participation between 12 to 16 hours is expected for the weekly program.

The program is an in-person experience, NOT online.

We are looking forward to receive your application
